You acknowledge and accept that ESL may collect, store and disclose Your personal information provided by You when You use the Software. Such information may include your name, email address, organisation, location and other information. Such personal information may be used and disclosed in order to verify your identity, and to facilitate your usage of the Software. In some circumstances, ESL may disclose Your personal information to its third party service providers in countries outside Australia.

If You proceed to submit your personal information, You are consenting to the transmission, disclosure, storage and access of your personal information by third parties in overseas jurisdictions. In that respect, Australian Privacy Principle 8 which ordinarily obliges ESL to take reasonable steps to ensure that overseas recipients of your information do not breach the Australian Privacy Principles (except Principle 1) will not apply.

Please note that if any of those overseas recipients handle your personal information in a manner which is inconsistent, or does not comply, with the Australian Privacy Principles:

- (a) to the maximum extent permitted by law, ESL will not be accountable under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) for any resulting loss or damage that you may suffer;

- (d) you may not be able to seek redress against the overseas recipient in their jurisdiction; and
- (e) in holding access to your personal information, the overseas recipient may be subject to foreign laws which compel their disclosure of your personal information to other parties, such as overseas government authorities.

ESL will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information it holds is accurate and complete and that it is protected from misuse, loss, unauthorised access or disclosure. If you would like to access the personal information that ESL holds about you, have any questions in relation to this clause or have a complaint, you can contact ESL's Privacy Officer at support@iolite-software.com

15. Termination

Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that ESL may have against You under the agreement formed by these terms or at law, if You breach any of these terms, ESL may, by giving You written notice, terminate this agreement. The termination of this agreement will result in the immediate and automatic revocation of the license. If ESL terminates this agreement (and revokes the License), You must immediately cease using the Software and (at ESL's option) delete or otherwise destroy all copies of the Software in Your possession.

16. Amendments

ESL can amend these terms as they apply to its customers generally (each a Common Amendment) by emailing details of the amendment and the date it comes into effect to You. If You can demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of ESL that the Common Amendment has a material, adverse impact on You, You may terminate the agreement on 90 days' written notice to ESL, however ESL is not required to refund any fees that have been paid by You in advance.

17. General

These terms constitute the entire agreement between You and ESL in relation to their subject matter and supersede and cancel all prior understandings, negotiations and agreements in connection with that subject matter.
