If the University terminates this agreement (and revokes the Licence), You must immediately cease using the Software and (at the University's option) delete or otherwise destroy all copies of the Software in Your possession.
16. Amendments. The University can amend these terms as they apply to its customers generally (each a Common Amendment) by emailing details of the amendment and the date it comes into effect to You. If You can demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the University that the Common Amendment has a material, adverse impact on You, You may terminate the agreement on 90 days' written notice to the University, however the University is not required to refund any fees that have been paid by You in advance.

General. These terms constitute the entire agreement between You and the University in relation to their subject matter and supersede and cancel all prior understandings, negotiations and agreements in connection with that subject matter. If any of provision of
